

The Department of Anthropology Presents:

PIVOTING ANTHROPOLOGICAL RESEARCH DURING COVID-19 PANEL

8 April 2021

3:30- 5:00 pm

Virtual in Zoom

Meeting ID: 965 1170 5444 Passcode: 695212

Join four anthropologists—faculty and students—who dramatically pivoted their research due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The panelists will share their experiences, revised research practices, and theoretical reflections on these changes with each other and the audience.

Panelists:

Carolyn Leutloff-Grandits (Scientific Coordinator for Border Research and Senior Scientist of the research group "Border & Boundary Studies", the European University Viadrina)

Rae Jereza (PhD Candidate, Anthropology, SUNY Binghamton)

Stacey Camp (Associate Professor of Anthropology, Associate Chair, Michigan State University)

Siaw Appiah-Adu (PhD Candidate, Anthropology, Syracuse University)

Moderator: Robert Rubinstein

Maxwell
Syracuse University

If you have questions or require accommodations contact JoAnn L Rhoades at jlrhoade@syr.edu by 1 April 2021.