A talk by Stephen Christopher, an anthropologist from Syracuse University, on the relationship between Tibetans living in McLeod Ganj and the Gaddi (local Indians). Stephen will examine aspects of the Tibetan-Gaddi relationship including anxieties and misconceptions over cultural assimilation and economic segregation. To be followed by an open discussion.