

Annotation for Transparent Inquiry (ATI)

A workshop organized by the Qualitative Data Repository (QDR)
February 22-23, 2018
LUBIN HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY
11 E 61st St, New York, NY 10065

Notes to Participants:

- All workshop participants have signed up to attend particular panels; to refresh your memory on which panels you selected, please check the sign-up sheet
- In addition to offering comments and thoughts at each plenary and panel, we hope that attendees will record their reactions and suggestions in the Public Notes Google docs that we have created for each plenary and panel. The URL for the Public Notes for each session is noted in association with the sessions below. They can also be accessed in this folder.

Thursday February 22nd

8:30-9:00 Breakfast

9:00-9:30 Introduction

(Chair: Diana Kapiszewski)

A brief discussion of the aims of the workshop, providing some general framing for the conversation, and information on logistics.

9:30-11:30 Paper Session 1

	Panel 1 "Law" Pergament (Chair: Kapiszewski)	Panel 2 "Ecology" Library (Chair = Weber)	Panel 3 "Public Health" 1870 (Chair: Karcher)
9:30-10:30	Author: Swenson Reviewer: Gaston	Author: Rinkus Reviewer: Lai	Author: Arrey Reviewer: Eta Tambong
10:30-11:30	Author: Gans-Morse Reviewer: Lazarev	Author: Yeh Reviewer: Carainben	Author: Purtle Reviewer: Hooley

BREAK: 11:30 to 11:45

11:45-12:45 First plenary: ATI in the Scholarly Communications Ecosystem

(Chair: Sebastian Karcher)

A discussion of how ATI can contribute to the scholarly communications ecosystem, with presentations by Hypothes.is, explaining the web annotations that provide ATI's technological underpinnings, and by Cambridge University Press, offering a publisher's perspective on ATI's promise.

12:45-1:45 Lunch

1:45-3:45 Paper Session 2

	Panel 4 "History" Pergament (Chair: Elman)	Panel 5 "War" Library (Chair: Karcher)	Panel 6 "Ethics & Psychiatry" 1870 (Chair: Weber)
1:45- 2:45	Authors: Pierskalla & De Juan Reviewer: O'Mealia	Authors: Tabatabai & Tracy Samuel Reviewer: Schramm	Author: Moorlock Reviewer: Morley
2:45- 3:45	Author: Kreuzer Reviewer: Charnysh	Author: Tidy Reviewer: Möller Ölgaard	Author: Yarris Reviewer: Ponting

3:45-4:00 Break

4:00-5:00 Second Plenary: ATI's Contributions to Scholarship: Pitfalls and Promises (two concurrent sessions)

(Co-Chairs Session A: Colin Elman and Nic Weber)

(Co-Chairs Session B: Diana Kapiszewski and Sebastian Karcher)

A reflection on authors' and reviewers' experiences with ATI as an approach to enhancing and empowering scholarly work and making it more transparent. How does using ATI strengthen scholarship? Are there any ways in which it weakens scholarship? What is gained and lost intellectually and methodologically by using ATI? What have you learned and how have your ideas about annotation changed?

There are no workshop activities planned for the evening.

Friday February 23

8:30-9:00 Breakfast

9:00-10:00 Third Plenary: ATI In Practice (two concurrent sessions)

Third Plenary A -- Writing Annotations (Authors)

(Co-Chairs: Sebastian Karcher and Nic Weber)

<http://bit.do/ati-plenary3-authors>

A discussion among workshop authors of the substantive and technical challenges to using ATI, and of how technology and associated guidance/instructions might be revised to make the experience easier and more productive.

Third Plenary B -- Reading Annotations (Reviewers)

(Chair: Diana Kapiszewski)

<http://bit.do/ati-plenary3-reviewers>

A discussion among workshop reviewers of their experiences reading articles that were annotated using ATI, and of how the preparation and presentation of annotations and the materials underlying them might be enhanced.

10:00-10:15 Break

10:15-12:15 Paper Session 3

	Panel 7 "IR" Pergament Chair: Elman	Panel 8 "Law" Library Chair: Kapiszewski	Panel 9 "Linguistics" 1870 Chair: Weber
10:15-11:15	Author: O'Mahoney Reviewer: Frankel Pratt	Author: Pedriana Reviewer: Dewey	Authors: Smith & Holmes-Elliott Reviewer: Leach
11:15-12:15	Author: Musgrave Reviewer: Anderson	Author: Skarbek Reviewer: Rusconi

12:15-1:15 Lunch

1:15-2:30 Final Plenary: The Future of ATI

(Chair: Colin Elman)

A discussion of how ATI's future might unfold, as it is adopted and used by different stakeholders in the academic ecosystem.

This workshop was made possible by a grant to the Qualitative Data Repository at Syracuse University from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, "Promoting and advancing the concept of open annotation in enhancing the credibility of qualitative research to empower social change.” Additional support was provided by the National Science Foundation.